

1-Day Equine Biomechanics Course

Improving Welfare, Soundness & Performance

Friday 19th July 2019

Whitegate Farm and Livery, Lower Moutain Rd., Hope, Flintshire, LL12 9RW

For Saddle Fitters, Physios, Farriers, Therapists, Horses Owners, Vets, Students and Riders

---

This one day introductory course will combine both theory and practical demonstrations. This course is of interest to anyone who wants to learn more about equine biomechanics and the effect that tack and equipment has on horse and rider performance.

Topics Covered - Theory and practical's.

- Introduction in to equine biomechanics
- Evaluation of equine locomotion
- Current research in horse and rider interaction
- Effect that tack and equipment has on equine performance
- Equine locomotion and rider biomechanics demonstration

This course will improve your understanding on equine biomechanics and provide you with valuable information which you can put in to practice.

---

To Book: [www.centaurbio mechanics.co.uk](http://www.centaurbio mechanics.co.uk) / 07788 978627

Cost: £110 (incl. course packs and lunch)

Location: Whitegate farm and Livery, Lower Moutain Rd., Hope, Flintshire, LL12 9RW

